- Called equipping our troops and re-arming the U.S. military “misplaced priorities.”
- Said targeted funding to combat Iran’s terrorism could pay for Obamacare instead.
- Blamed President Trump’s strikes—not Iran’s regime—for U.S. service member deaths.

Sanctuary Governor

- Spurned immigration law, vetoing bills requiring sheriffs to cooperate with ICE.
- Blocked legislation protecting those charged with felonies from immigration authorities.
- Helped free criminal illegal aliens who went on to kidnap and assault American citizens.
- Refused to disavow open-borders socialists, saying Democrats have “got to be together.”
- Backed Schumer’s homeland security shutdown and withholding disaster relief funds.

Public Safety Liability

- Launched a task force pushing light sentences for violent repeat felons and fewer arrests.
- Agreed to release 3,500 inmates early; 600 were charged with felonies, like murder.
- Vetoed tougher penalties for violent rioters, calling them “unnecessary.”
- Failed to earn the endorsement of a single North Carolina law enforcement group.

Blind to Threats

- Accepted a $7,000 campaign donation from a member of the Chinese Communist Party.
- Recruited a solar company with CCP ties, providing them millions in taxpayer dollars
- Downplayed the company’s ownership by a Chinese conglomerate with CCP leadership.
- Opposed the Maduro raid, calling it a reckless move for “big oil company profit.”
- Failed to call out Maduro’s crimes or dictatorship, even when fellow Democrats did.

Coddling Anti-Israel Extremists

- Stayed silent as anti-Israel protestors took over UNC Chapel Hill’s campus.
- Tried vetoing penalties for anti-Israel protestors using masks while committing crimes.
- Failed to condemn a resolution calling Palestinian security prisoners “hostages” for days.
- Expressed confidence in Joe Biden as the Middle East’s “best hope” for peace.

POLARIS Verdict | Behind Roy Cooper’s moderate brand masks a radical record: sanctuary for criminals, mass prisoner releases, and weakness toward adversaries. Senators decide matters of war and peace—and Cooper has shown he cannot be trusted with either.
